

Paul,
 Some day you'll be able to C.B. with me and I won't have to with you. Let's have lots of fun this summer. Love

The Dignity of Man

Oh, what is Man, great Maker of mankind,
That Thou to him so great respect dost bear,
That Thou adornst him with so bright a mind,
Maks't him king, and even an angel's peer!

Oh what a lively life, what heavenly power,
What spreading virtue, what a sparkling fire!
How great, how plentiful, how rich a dower
Dost Thou within this dying flesh inspire!

Thou leav'st Thy print in other works of Thine,
But Thy whole image Thou in man has writ,
There cannot be a creature more divine
Except like Thee, it should be infinit.

But it exceeds man's thought to think how high God hath rais'd Man since God a man became.
The angels do admire this mystery
And are astonisht when they view the same.

SIR JOHN DAVIES

Paul,
I hope we have many more good times as we had through grade school and 2 yrs. of high school.
Be good
Carol Hippen

Paul,
I hope you're some of my classes next year.
Have a nice summer
and stay as nice as you are.
May God bless you
from Phillip

Paul,
Although I don't know
you in any class this year,
I'm sure you're really super!
(especially without a suspension!)
Good luck + God Bless You!

Each Man Is a Man of Destiny,

a majestic creature with a tremendous natural power to grow in natural perfection.

Through the divine alchemy of suffering, humility, and love, man is readied for the overwhelming thunderclap of God's grace. Man's capacity for this God-life constitutes his supreme dignity — an earthling becomes one with the Deity through the miracle of grace.

Truth will not be muffled; the vision of beauty cannot be contained. When men live deeply the truth and see vividly the beauty, they aspire to utter the truth and mirror the beauty of God. So, too, these pages reflect that noble living at St. Catherine's.

*If he had a hint of a lotta fun with you in the hol Biology class.

FACULTY AND STUDENTS

Paul,
your score has gone
fast. we'll have fun
this summer if you want to. Let's see you go in football next year, and you'll be a "D" man. OK.
We can practice this summer.
See you at the store.

The Word Dwelt Among Us

*Christ, the Word made Flesh, bade men to teach all nations bringing them the Truth
they had witnessed in Him.*

For nineteen centuries men and women have fulfilled the sublime mission of bringing the Word to all men. For this reason our faculty have assumed a role in the direction of mankind, a work of nobility and of humility. It was their task to remove the impediments which block the student's vision of truth, goodness, and beauty. By preparing the individual to meet, recognize, and fulfill his responsibility to God, his fellowman, and himself, the teacher refined the image of God in each soul. Deepening this imprint molded and enhanced the student's personal life so that he will bear witness to the Eternal Truth in his home, in his community, and to the very uttermost parts of the world.

Our Senior Year

was a composite of tiny details set off by great events.

Festive moments, enchanted evenings, days of study, year of football champions, retreat days of silence — all this and more we packed into 900 hours. Tests measured our educational aptitudes and achievements. Throughout the years spent in absorbing the traditions, teachings, and truths of a great and glorious school, we have discovered the dignity and freedom of the human mind, the supreme reality of God and of one's soul. Patterning our lives on this design, we, through the echoes of our living, will herald anew glad tidings of eternal joy

Now we pass, a pageant in a great tradition.

The Seniors of 1956

(1725) -

Numbers, the Language Of Science

found us testing the wisdom of the ancients and examining the theories of the contemporaries.

WHAT A NERVE. Jim Kronmiller, a sophomore biologist, probes the nervous system of a crayfish.

We experienced the necessity of precision of thought as well as precision in work. We came face to face with the challenge of a supersonic era in which we prayed, worked, and played. With its many alluring promises of material progress, science has released man from heavy physical burdens so that he can now freely pursue the intellectual, the artistic, and the spiritual with fewer obstacles. However, the question arises: will the light of science direct man through the labyrinth of material wealth on to its Creator? For us remains the choice. Upon this decision rests the fate of civilization.

GIVEN: FUNCTIONS. When trigonometry students attempt to solve the functions of any angle, they need plenty of paper, time, and talent. Left to right, Bill Ramcke, Jean Ann Francois, Carol Bonini, and Ralph Principe speculate upon the final step

WEIGHTY PROBLEMS. Just a hairline more and the scales will balance for Peter Oehmen, who is completing a physics experiment.

With Junior Tempo

we stepped forward to assume the responsibilities of upperclassmen.

We continued fighting brave battles over unglamorous desks. Double sessions caught us going to and from school with books piled five and six high for eligibility and for promotion. In the crevices of our busy hours we found time to wedge in gab sessions, to try new cheers at pep rallies, and to join clubs or serve on committees. We showed a bit of talent, too, when we presented "Mistletoe Madness." On the side we brought home a few forensic trophies and did our mite to cop the 1955 football championship. Spring came and with it our class rings. Abruptly we were on the threshold of our senior year.

In Sophomore Style

we returned, all 300 of us, high-spirited and in earnest.

The year got off with a leaping start when we were elected to produce the first of a series of student shows. With memories of Whispering Hope and of Dancing Cacti from the "Si Si Senorita" tucked away for future reference, we settled down to a normal routine of theorems and declensions. Although mid semester exams cast a shadow on the horizon, winter holidays offered a welcome respite. Our thoughts turned to the all-important things of life during the annual retreat while we took stance of our spiritual growth. Before we realized it spring was upon us, and we sighted the junior goal.

formed an opening wedge to an important future in the business world.

The ability to earn a living and live on what one earns is a vital problem for every individual. In business enterprises we learned to plan, prepare a budget, record transactions, and interpret results. Dictation and transcription exercises prepared us to accomplish the tasks of a secretary efficiently and confidently. Daily practice in beating out a rhythmic asdf and in posting journal entries transformed neophytes into professional secretaries and accountants. To complete our course, we analyzed the fundamental Christian principles necessary for the stability and security of economic life and well-being.

SECRETARY OF TOMORROW. With ease and grace Jackie Lopour glides over the lines of the shorthand pad leaving a page of interesting characters and symbols.

NEAT SHEET. In office practice class Walter Bola produces a mailable letter with the first attempt.

Of Freshman Days

we, on the second shift, alone bear witness.

With ample corridor space we shuffled swiftly from class to class. We struggled through the traditional stages of every typical Latin and algebra student. Some of us made the Honor Roll; others were elected as our leaders. Gradually we drank in the spirit of St. Catherine's by attending upperclassmen assemblies and by completing the rooting section at varsity games. We pledged ourselves as saints and scholars to uphold with undaunted loyalty a priceless heritage of a Catherine.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

enrich the facets of the image through harmonious living

"Thou lears't Thy print in other works of Thine, But Thy whole image Thou in man hast writ.

Oh what a lively life, what heavenly power.
What spreading virtue, what a sparkling fire!"

On the Quest of Truth

St. Catherine's sodalists set out to spread Christ's kingdom through Catholic Action.

Armed with knowledge and zeal, they banded together in committees to battle for the Queen.

As a separate and distinct unit of the Sodality, the School Welfare Committee, composed of the class officers and two homeroom representatives, met each month to study and solve current school and student problems. These solutions were then related to the respective homerooms. Through the program of the School Welfare, students learned to be tolerant of the opinions of others, to avoid criticisms and resentments, and to work together for the benefit of all.

In the spirit of true apostles the Home-Foreign Missions Committee extended material aid to local and foreign fields. Filling Red Cross boxes, providing Christmas dinners and collecting clothing for the needy, and sponsoring the Lenten collection of funds for missionaries afforded many opportunities to experience the true joy of giving

MISSIONS COMMITTEE. Co-Chairmen. Margaret Zinnen. Janet Finsen

Armed with the firm conviction that the source of all strength lay in the Holy Eucharist, the Eucharistic Committee fought to increase frequent reception of Holy Communion. Soliciting membership in the Knights and Handmaids of the Blessed Sacrament and conducting a Youth Week campaign set the stage for their initial projects

EUCCHARISTIC COMMITTEE. Co-Chairmen: James Held. Rose Marie Poritz

In defense of the Catholic viewpoint members of the Discussion Committee learned how to refute modern attacks on the Faith. With convincing arguments they were able to uphold true doctrines and to denounce false principles

DISCUSSION COMMITTEE Chairman Beatrice Dargin

KNIGHTS OF THE ALTAR. Francis Stulac '58, Lawrence Weisbrod '57, James Held '56, Thomas Poulsen '58, Mike N. 12 59

In companionship with Mary Our Lady's Committee recruited forces to imbue the school and the world with the spirit of Mary. Three major projects of the year, the Homecoming shrine to Mary, the Christmas parade float, and the World Sodality Day program, rebounded with the zeal and enthusiasms of Mary's devotees

OUR LADY'S COMMITTEE. Co-Chairmen: Julie Haislmaier, Mary Fazzari

That Christ's truth might prevail in a troubled world was the goal of the Catholic Truth Committee. By gaining a better knowledge of Catholic doctrine, they were equipped to meet the enemy who appeared in the form of immoral literature and materialistic ideas. They also strengthened their position by promoting subscriptions to Catholic reading for the Catholic home.

CATHOLIC TRUTH COMMITTEE. Chairman: Judy Bonar

The Personality-Leadership Committee realized the need for future leaders among Catholic laymen. Rotating chairman duties for monthly meetings provided an opportunity for the individuals to practice leadership. Through timely discussions on ways and means to develop personality, a necessary asset for leadership, a standard was set for personal improvement in little everyday affairs.

PERSONALITY-LEADERSHIP COMMITTEE. Representatives: Norman Wirtz, Nancy Quinn

Fanfare and Echoes

rolled on when fifty SCHS band members reported for 1955-56 roll call.

TOP PERFORMANCE. All music groups unite in melody and song at the Musical Extravaganza, the spring music festival

Trombones slid into shivering vibratos, trumpets sent forth the bugle call, woodwinds throbbed, and drums rumbled on. Daily rehearsals under Mr. John T. Opferkuch, band director, soon eliminated the uncertain tones and sounds. When Homecoming festivities drew near, the marching unit led by Robert Tykal, drum major, drilled routine formations and maneuvers for the parade. Dennis Baumgardt, a senior trombone player, rallied a pep band to participate in pep assemblies and to spirit the team at basketball games. In addition to preparing for the school's music festival, the band continued to perfect selections for the festival sponsored by the Wisconsin School Music Association.

Through daily practice sessions twenty-five pioneers achieved musical success. Bowers and pluckers of strings revived the tones of youth and joy, of pain and passion, of majesty and glory. Before them danced notes, signs, and symbols as each music-maker interpreted his scores. They exhibited skill and competency at the sophomore student show, the annual Christmas program, and the Musical Extravaganza. To culminate proficiency in string-melodies, the orchestra expressed the threats and cries of the "Pirates of Penzance."

TOP PERFORMANCE. All music groups unite in melody.

At a sign from the conductor eager voices ascended — sometimes animated in conversational tone, then gay with rhythmic pulsation of a dance; now swelling to a thunder-roar, or dying to a pianissimo hush. Individuals merged into a single harmonious unit losing their identity in the common creation of song. Exhilarated by success, St. Catherine's singing world let their voices "ring out and over the earth through all grief and strife with a golden joy."

Officers: Darryl Cremer, president; Robert Grimal, treasurer; Antoinette Rufflo, secretary

With Combined Choral Groups

there was music in the air for the annual operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance."

THE ALTOS AND BASSES OF THE SCHS CHORISTERS. Front row (left to right) Wanda Dziedzic, Sally Huennkens, James Bohmann, Beverly Blaha, Judith Burkert, Romaine March, Patricia Anderson, Nancy Coffey, Beverly Peterson. Second row Sandra Smolinski, Jane Kralin, Antoinette Ruffalo, Paul Betchkal, David Lennertz, Phylus Spanski, Susan Barry, Elia Wenman, Judith Bosaner. Third row James Kesser, Gary Bommink, Frederick Terry, Richard Anzalone, Ronald Ruffalo, Charles Myers, Patrick Diener, Robert Grimal, Mahael Shaugh. Fourth row Gerald Kenth, Robert Milkie, James Haas, Daniel Hahn, Richard Janaky, Patrick Murphy, Edwin Leman, Russell Bohn, Daniel R. burg, John May.

Vocal contributions of sparkling melodies and lilting music stirred an appreciative audience at the Musical Extravaganza. With hymns, carols, and old favorites the singing groups appeared before the student body and civic groups, winning prestige in the local musical world. No final note ended the year of choral activities, for each music-lover kept singing in his heart memory's mystic melodies.

On-the-Spot Coverage,

dates with deadlines yielded a monthly four-page, five-column Shield and a 1956 edition of the Lance

The search for news was on. Daily in the inner sanctum of staff rooms 305 and 319 activity buzzed feverishly from one to five. Cub reporters scurried about school and city unearthing bits of information and data. Heads were put together and ideas were shaken out to capture the spirit of the school in word and picture. Symptoms of deadline jitters—edgy nerves, exhausted brains, worn down pencils, endless rewriting and retyping—combined with friendly jibes and repartee became a part of the routine as deadlines loomed menacingly ahead. When the finished product arrived, all trials and problems were soon forgotten; for the press club had met the test of work under pressure. They had produced a written record of achievements and left a treasury of cherished memories.

Devine, John Hartl, vice president. In the foreground: Janet Finsen, Joe Romano, Nancy Haas, secretary-treasurer; Mary Jo Liegler.

On the Debating Horizon
*colleagues engaged in careful research,

Resolved: That governmental subsidies should be granted to high school students according to need.

Practice! Practice! Practice!" Demosthenes' recommendation for acquiring a proficiency in the art of debate, yielded dividends for the Lincoln Debate Club. Through tedious periods of fact finding and training the debaters soon mastered the elementary techniques. Before long they were able to enter an intellectual combat and present their case in the brilliant style of Cicero. With logic and cool detachment they had persuaded the "Honorable Judges" and "Worthy Opponents" to accept the proposed resolution. In addition, each individual club member had increased his self-assurance and self-reliance in vocalizing a defense of the right.

The Curtain Trembled,

then parted to reveal the Players' cast transformed into storybook characters of "The Hole in the Wall."

While a starry-eyed audience had barely stopped blinking, SCHS Thespians began casting for roles in "The Other Wise Man," a one-act Christmas play. Assuming back-stage chores for the Choristers' annual operetta, drama-lovers discovered that behind-the-scenes work is often more important than the acting itself. Players also joined the Catholic Theater Conference to keep in tune with the best in theater arts. Through weekly meetings each Player strove to capture the spirit of his organization and his production, then send it across the footlights into the hearts of his audience.

Cultures, Old and New

invited amateurs to rendezvous for inspiration and appreciation with the classic and the conventional.

Another club, Romani Hodierni, launched into the classic Roman world. In a skit the members accompanied Cicero as he walked with Washington and Lincoln at midnight. Other skits which the club enacted included "The Football Rally" and "The Fall of Troy." Over and above perusing their own magazine, Auxilium Latinum, individuals participated in the nationwide Latin examination. Officers: Judith Madole, president; Carol Kriva, vice president; Barbara Anderson, secretary-treasurer.

The world of books cast its spell upon fifteen amateur critics, exclusively seniors. In order to interpret the intellectual currents of the times, R-15ers felt the need of broadening their own reading horizons. Through the study of Color Ebony and Dark Symphony they acquired a sympathetic attitude toward the race question. The lives of modern authors also provided information to analyze recent trends. Personally enlightened and informed, Club R-15 voiced the secrets of the world of books. Officers: Carol Strelka, James Von Germeten, co-chairmen; Marilyn Jacko, secretary; Eugene Scheppe, treasurer.

In Castles and Chalets

*German and French clubs discovered

The Lorelei Verein organized to acquaint its members with German culture and the German American heritage. To stimulate their projects, individuals met German exchange students. The club members anticipated a dinner in a German restaurant and strictly German in menu. After a successful candy sale for the benefit of a needy mission, German Club members ended the year with a feeling of gemutlichkeit. Officers: David Balane, president; Julie Haislmaier, vice president; Judy Burkert, secretary; Charles Pfeilstifter, treasurer

The secret behind learning to live together as nations and peoples lies in a mutual understanding of one another. Through a program of music, literature games and group correspondence the French Club encouraged and promoted international relationships. At monthly meetings movies and records removed the difficulties of correct pronunciation and accent. Officers: Signe Vallin, president; Connie Dunham, vice president; Karen Robers, secretary; Jeanne Thomas, treasurer

In the congenial atmosphere of books nine willing helpers offered friendly assistance to all patrons of the school library. During study periods and after school hours they received and shelved books, checked cards, and tidied up the library. A monthly bulletin recommended good reading selections and announced recent additions to the bookshelf. Through personal experience of handling all types of books, young librarians opened wide the vistas of knowledge for themselves and others. Officers: Mary Fazzari, president; Joan Becker, vice president, Sandra Despins, secretary

Foremost among the aims of the Secretaries, Incorporated, was to maintain and defend Catholic principles in the business world. In addition it strove to maintain a high quality of personal workmanship and conduct. To test their ability in this regard, the Secretaries conducted all financial transactions associated with the annual Play Prom project. Through field trips to the American Bank and Trust Company and S. C. Johnson's Wax Company they saw everyday offices in action. Guest speakers offered many valuable tips on business ethics and personal habits to be practiced and developed by aspiring applicants. Officers: Theresa Fazzari, president; Kathryn Rotkis, public relations; Ann Spaay, secretary

When a sudden shriek or a declamatory outburst pierced routine silence, it was evident that the forensic tryouts and practices for tournaments were in progress. A variety of selections offered challenging opportunities for personal initiative and growth in creativeness. Modern Patrick Henrys went off to the Midwest Catholic Speech League to joust with fellow-league members. Testing their forensic skill further, young orators participated in invitational tournaments sponsored by St. Scholastica High School of Chicago and St. George's High School of Evanston. When final scores and ratings were tallied, St. Catherine's Forensic Club had attained another triumph in the oratorical world.

Pride and confidence increased as young volunteers served steaming dishes of appetizing food at the Senior Supper, at the breakfast for the Holy Name Society and for the Knights of Columbus. Obliging young ladies also assisted at the CSPA convention luncheon and the Alumni Banquet. Transforming themselves into jet-propelled dishwashers, the hostesses mixed fun with stacks and stacks of dishes. After the last spoon was in place, the Hostess Club members discovered that in addition to rendering a loyal service, they had formed many a lasting friendship. Officers: Loretta Kiersztian, president; Signe Vallin, vice president; Judy Roszkowski, secretary; Mary Lu Maher, treasurer; Donna Dodge, historian.

The Future Teachers of America, the newest club in school, captured the spotlight by offering tutoring opportunities to students in need, secretarial services to the administration, and substitutes for absent instructors. Defense-minded members alerted the student body to the need for Civil Defense through an assembly. Bi-monthly meetings stressed the necessary qualities of a good teacher as well as the basic principles and methods essential to success in the field. Although the club is young, some of its members have already experienced the realities and the satisfaction afforded by the teaching profession. Officers: John Kroupa, president, Harvey Huston, vice president; Janet Peterson, secretary; Jo Ann Manders, treasurer

Youthful appetites offered no problem to the cafeteria staff who were able to heap mounds of mashed potatoes or relish hot dogs by the hundreds. Efficiency, speed and courtesy satisfied a hungry student body day after day. Special menu days of "long Johns" or homemade pies kept a happy staff busy replenishing and refilling orders. After appeasing the ravenous appetites of three separate shifts, the cafeteria service crew turned about and became a splendid clean-up gang.

Future scientists of America found an outlet for their ideas and energy in the school's science clubs, S.C. and the Physics Club. S.C., the chemistry division, audited a lecture entitled "The Chemistry of Cosmetics," made a field trip to the tower of S. C. Johnson's Wax Company, and held a science fair. The Physics Club, on the other hand, delved into the world of engineers and the world of nucleonics, where they envisioned new buildings and experimented with the atom. Representatives from the Milwaukee School of Engineering interviewed candidates and presented them with elementary requisites. Students with visions of becoming men of science pursued their ambitions through individual projects, a stepping stone to the realization of their dreams. Physics Club Officers: Nicholas Pier, president, Ralph Principe, vice president; Julie Haislmaier, secretary.

At the annual "call to arms" for general ushering duties at school functions for the students or for the public, senior boys responded quickly and generously. With but few preliminaries they organized formally into the Ushers Club. One group under the advisership of Sister Mary Catherine assumed all duties at gatherings involving the public; the other section, under the leadership of Sister Lucy, was responsible for general order and direction of traffic at all school assemblies. Over and above this, a group of the boys volunteered a day's service in order to assist and direct the delegates at the CSPA convention held at St. Catherine's.

There was no time to be lost, for the agenda of the Pep Club called for approximately twenty-five activities to be accomplished before the close of the school year. After the successful season pass drive for new "buckets" in the boys gym, Spaceland ideas were germinating for a spectacular Homecoming pep assembly under the chairmanship of Nancy Quinn. A new tradition originated in the school when Chairman Margaret Zinnen planned a basketball pep assembly featuring Connie Dunham as "Queen of Basketball." The Pep Club also undertook bulletin board publicity for the Play-Prom project as well as for all other events. In every activity the club aimed to engender in its members a spirit of loyalty and service toward the school and student body. To qualify for a major letter, a Monogram candidate maintained an eighty per cent in school citizenship, participated in at least forty per cent of the games, and received approval of his coach and athletic director. The year's program included the sponsoring two dances, supervising the Boys' Parochial Basketball Tournament and distributing game programs. Six years' savings of the club helped purchase four new suspension baskets for the school gym. In a monthly bulletin edited by Jack Evenson and advised by Father Uhen significant messages and data kept the goals of the Monogram Club in focus, namely, the moral as well as physical betterment of athletes. ## Surprise for Rugged Mendel

Coach Eddie Race's Angels opened the 1955 championship season in a non-conference game with Chicago Mendel High. In a bruising and torrid battle the Angels salvaged an 18-13 victory as they chalked up scores with TD's by Harry Mares on a 9-yard run, a Leo Mutchler to Dick Anzalone 28-yard pass and a 1-yard quarterback sneak by Mutchler. On defense George Blommel sparkled as he slashed through to spill the Mendel backs for losses. The Angels staved off a fourth quarter Mendel rally when end Floyd Westenberg intercepted a pass on the Angel 34-yard line with about 1:04 minutes to play

INTO A MENDEL BACK an unidentifiable Angel player throws a beautiful cross-body block. Other Angel players: Dan Bentz (44), John Talos (38), Dave Balane (12)

Loop Debut

In its Catholic loop debut with Waukesha Memorial the Black and White stumbled to an 18-6 win. Harry Mares, a bright spot in the Angel offense, scored all three of the Angel markers—one on a 2-yard run and on a pair of passes good for 16 yards and 12 yards respectively. Defensive mainstays, Jim Theres, Ron Bentz, George Oteman, and Mike Beck, did a good job of stopping the Crusaders while Waukesha avoided running plays around George Blommel's side. All in all it was a sub-par game, but it did provide the Angel mentor with a key move to championship, namely, shifting end Blommel to defensive line backer.

Roaring Angels

With a bit of initial tom foolery the Angels stampeded to a 20-0 victory over Marquette High. The Black and White defensive line continued its sensational plays. Linebackers George Blommel and Matt Rotkis roared through the Hilltopper line bowling over anyone in the way. Mares scored the first touchdown on a 1-yard plunge, while Blommel scored on a 15-yard pass from Mutchler and a 13-yard pass from May. Again Jim Welsh kicked both of the conversion attempts.

Backfield Stars

For a second consecutive Sunday St. Catherine's grid machine opened fire as a wave of black shirts smothered Pius XI before some 3,400 fans in Horlick Field. The star-studded backfield had quite a day for themselves—quarterback John May passed for two touchdowns and an extra point; halfback Dick Anzalone scored twice on a 19-yard run and a 46-yard pass; Mares snagged a 47-yard pass; and guard-fullback Ronnie Bentz toted the ball five times for 37 yards and one touchdown. 'Talos' goal line thrust and Welsh's two conversions whipped up a 33-7 victory for the Catholic league lead.

"THUD!" Another Mendel player bites the dust. Identifiable Angel players: Tom Secanky (45), Lee Bauer (30), Jim Welsh (47), Warren Greco (36), Dick Anzalone (22), Dan Bentz (44), John Talos (38).

"WE WANT A TOUCHDOWN!" Ronnie Bentz (37) seems to hear this cry in his dashing debut as a runner against Cathedral.

Homecoming Victory

Coach Race's Black and White powerhouse rolled to their fifth straight victory leaving Notre Dame deep in the hole with a 26-0 deficit. After Mares scored the initial touchdown, Dick Anzalone accounted for three TD's, carried the ball 21 times for 102 yards, caught four passes good for 130 yards, and completed two out of three aeriels for 16 additional yards. Some beautiful faking by John May threw the entire Red Wing defense off kilter and May scooted into the end zone untouched for the extra point.

Breeze to Championship

The all-powerful Angel club cinched an undisputed Catholic Conference championship in mesmerizing Messmer 39-7. Coach Race's impenetrable defensive line and his three-ply running attack sparked. Ringleaders in flattening Messmer included Anzalone, who racked up four markers, quarterbacks John May and Leo Mutchler, and fullback Talos, who made long gains through their brilliant faking. George Blommel also hit to pay dirt after a spectacular catch from Mutchler. Welsh capped St. Catherine's scoring activities for the day with his three conversions, the win cinching their 11th championship in 25 years.

Undefeated! Untied!

In the final tilt of the season St. Catherine's crushed Cathedral 32-0 leaving the Angels the undefeated and undisputed grid champs. Leo Mutchler, sprinting the final 31 yards, capped a 63-yard drive to pay dirt on the third play, while May heaved a 27-yard pass to Blommel for the second Angel tally. Intercepting an Eagle aerial, Warren Greco rambled 16-yards for a third touchdown. Ronnie Bentz scored on a 13-yard gallop. Coach Race cleaned the bench in the last quarter to close the first undefeated season since 1949 and the sixth in the history of the school.

However, the Catholic Conference put a hex on the Black and White as they dropped their Conference opener to Marquette 55-48 and their ensuing game to St. John Cathedral 48-43.

Messmer proved to be the Angels' first conference victim as they bowed 72-54. The Saints then clubbed Waukesha Memorial 63-44 and Lutheran 56-54 before clipping the Notre Dame Red Wings 58-56 in a four overtime scoring duel.

After mauling St. Bonaventure 58-41 and surprising the experts by edging Pius XI 60-49, the Black and White experienced an off day at Don Bosco with a score 58-35, the Dons on the winning end.

Marquette's Junior Hilltoppers continued to jinx the Black and Whites as they thumped the Angels for the second straight time 60-57. St. Catherine's then squeaked by Cathedral 41-40, and breezed by hapless Messmer 57-48. Notre Dame got their revenge when they dumped the Saints 66-55.

Thereafter the Angels routed the Pius Popes 73-53 and lost to Don Bosco 53-52 in a much disputed game that gave Bosco the championship crown. In the final game of the season St. Catherine's Angels defeated St. Bonaventure's Cardinals 63-42.

With Accurate Chipping and sharp putting the Angel linksmen wound up a successful golf season to tie Marquette for Catholic Conference championship

After opening its season with a 698-735 win over West Allis Central, the Angels bowed to Pulaski in a dual match. John Arneson's sparkling 2-under-par 33 led the golfers to a 326-353 gain over Cudahy. Winding up its pre-conference schedule with Greendale, the Angels chalked another score of 692-822.

In conference play the SCHS golfers, taking advantage of Pius XI and Marquette, were well on their way toward their third championship in four years. They finished the first round of conference competition with a 4-0 record at Don Bosco and Messmer's expense.

After defeating Pius, the Angel play was interrupted by the State Catholic Golf Tournament, in which they captured third place. Three St. Catherine's men shot in the 70's; Bill Whaley, a four-over-par 74; John Arneson, 76; Bob Grady, 78; Matt Quinn, 88.

St. Catherine's extended its dual golf record by defeating in turn South Milwaukee, Lutheran, Messmer, Shorewood, and Don Bosco. The superb playing of linksmen Arneson, Cermak, Quinn, and Whaley enabled the Angels to end the season with a 19-2 dual record against all opposition.

Running Events Paid Off

when thinclads clocked time, lapped miles, and soared high in track meets

After a 70-43 victory over Marquette in the season's opener, an Angel veteran team kept on a hot pace to wind up with five first places, one second, and one loss. In another runaway St. Catherine's cindermen downed Cudahy 76-37. A 60-53 setback dealt by Greendale left Coach John McGuire's team with their winning streak broken. In a triangular meet the Black and White thinclads downed Juneau 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ -37, but lost to Marquette with a 91 $\frac{1}{3}$ -66 $\frac{2}{3}$ . The Angel trackmen posted three consecutive wins by nipping Pulaski 59 $\frac{1}{2}$ -53 $\frac{1}{2}$ , St. John Military Academy 59-54, and Lutheran High 83 $\frac{1}{2}$ -29 $\frac{1}{2}$ .

George Blommel was named one of Racine's most versatile parochial track athletes. Although he participated in high jumps, weight, and the relay team, his best event was the 440-yard dash. Rapid Rano Wells, the workhorse of the Angel trackmen, and Jim Broshier, were two other all-around acemen on Coach McGuire's powerful team.

diamond mainstays led the Angels to a 10-4 league record and a second place tie for Catholic Conference title

The Angels opened the 1955 baseball season with a hitless start against a Don Bosco 4-1 lead. The superb pitching from southpaw John May enabled the ball club to rebound by tipping Pius XI 10-2. In a non-conference tilt fireball Joe Pauls hurled the Angels to a 4-2 win over Lutheran. Resuming conference play, the Black and White defeated Notre Dame 8-4 behind the one-hit pitching of May and three hits from outfielder Tom Gedemer. After two unsuccessful tussles with Waukesha Memorial and St. Mary's, Kenosha, respectively, the 12-hit attack and three-hit pitching of John May turned the Cathedral encounter into a top performance 9-1 tally for the Angels. Coach Eddie Race's club then cut short a late Messmer rally to post a 10-7 conference victory, but suffered a second defeat from the Dons.

The Angels protected their third place standing by chasing Messmer 8-6 in a first inning five-run outburst. After a 5-4 win over St. John Cathedral, the Angels tied for a second-place berth when they jolted St. Bonaventure 19-0 in the season's final game.

The GAA sports program was designed primarily to provide wholesome recreation for all its members, especially for the individual who no longer participated in an organized or formal sports program at school. Developing leisure recreational abilities afforded the sports-minded girl lessons in sportsmanship, courage, personal skill and initiative. Through a point system each person received special recognition for achievements in basketball, bowling, hiking, badminton, swimming, riding, bicycling, golf, tennis, and ping pong.

GAA's famed Jake's Jerks again took the championship in the American city-league basketball tournament open to all high schools of Racine. Following in the footsteps of the Jerks were the Tom Cats, another GAA team, who took first place in the other city league, the National. Top bowlers of the season included Judy Hanson '56 and Beverly Hansen '57.

The annual girls' homeroom basketball tournament brought its fill of cheers and challenges. There were many tense moments when in the semi-final playoffs the Freshmen of 207 beat the Juniors of 123, and the Sophomores of 307 scored over the Seniors of 119. In the final round the Freshmen of 207 were announced the triumphant winners. Proudly they carried a trophy and individual gold basketballs back to their homeroom.

Other phases of physical education included soccer, volleyball and badminton. Excitement reigned and sportsmanship prevailed as gym classes met to top the list in social efficiency as well as physical and mental fitness.

EXPERT ATHLETES. High GAA pointers, Carol Zimprich, president, Jean Ann Francois, secretary, and Antoinette Tyler '59 consider the 1956 GAA awards.

COACHES' AWARD. The excellent coaching of their teams in the grade school basketball tournament won a special GAA medal for Dolores Verberen and Helen Evans. Each team demonstrated good sportsmanship along with fine playing.

These We Shall Take

to weave a many-colored tapestry of memories

Deep-hued threads of intellectual pursuits . . .
teachers who, we found, were wiser far than we classes where we laughed, learned, and watched the minutes creep

Embroidered designs of other cultural joys . . .
operettas and concerts, plays and forensics, experiences in the musical, dramatic, and speech arts

Strong lines of physical growth . . .
gymnastics which perfected coordination competitive sports which challenged our mettle

Gay lights of social reveries . . .
friends in whose sympathy and understanding we saw the image of God dances, games, assemblies — happy times of mutual regard and respect

Frayed edges of problems, disappointments, assignments . .
lessons well-learned habits and skills acquired, ideals formed

Interwoven throughout the tapestry . . .
lies the pattern of our Maker for
"The Hand that made us is Divine."

Paul, Jack and the boys to the 1st of the year. Best of luck. 7/10/42

Paul,

I didn't see you much this year, but be sure to stop if you in Kenosha.

God love you,
Mary Ethel

Dear Paul,
Best of luck
to a swell guy who was once my neighbor. If you get to the north side be sure and stop in. Have a nice summer.
Mary Ellen Becker

Paul,
It's been more than nice having you in my Geometry. Maybe we will be in some classes together some next year. Keep hope so. Keep working hard & may God bless you.

Your friend always,
Carolyn Roberts.

P.S. Have a roller of fun
this summer.

Franklin to Hamburg
"Schmidt I"

Dear Paul,
Have fun this summer and see you next year. Homeroom was fun. Mary Ann (Pinky) Bushell

To one of the worst guys
at our table lots of luck luck. It's a shame you can't pick up any meat.
You want to take lessons from an old hand at it.

Jim Kaiser:
P.S. Notice nothing & Lifty
& L. didn't call you Luffy.

Love
being off the game
Penny & me go
one of your friends
Jeffrey

Boards of luck, Mrs. Christensen.
It sure was fun "(?) in English & History. Be good this summer.
Barbara Falken

To a real neat guy I know.
Good luck.
always
Tom Johnson

Paul,

I want you to keep on the side of our Lord.
He will have to go
out sometime soon.
Say a pray for me sometime. Don't rock me up next football season.
